THREE SCORE AND
FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Yes, on February 12, 1897, this living memorial to President Lincoln was chartered at Cumberland Gap, Harrogate, Tennessee.

A free enterprise, equal opportunity college. Founded February 12, 1897. A privately maintained, independent, four-year, co-educational, accredited college of arts and sciences located where the states of Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia converge at beautiful Cumberland Gap National Historical Park.

Much is due Lincoln's friend and adviser, General Oliver Otis Howard, and other patriotic Americans for the founding and ongoing of Lincoln Memorial University.

Now the college begins celebrating its 75th Anniversary. One aspect of the Diamond Jubilee is the offering of an especially commissioned 75th Anniversary Medallion. Art work for the Medallion is by Lloyd Ostendorf, noted Lincoln artist and a trustee of Lincoln Memorial University.

The unique historical Medallion is pictured and described in the enclosed preprint ad folder.

Already orders for Medallions are arriving. If you and friends desire either the silver or the bronze Medallion, or both, may I suggest that you send your order now. How to proceed is described in the enclosed ad preprint. (Please date your order and include your check.)

It's a unique Medallion, a rare opportunity.

Cordially,

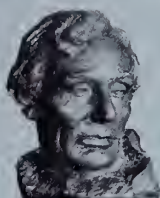

Stuart L. Watson
Vice President-Development

January, 1972, in the 75th Year of Lincoln Memorial.
